Financial Analyst Peter Schiff to Speak at Paul Festival

Renowned Forecaster to Explain Why Ron Paul Is Right on the Economy

Harrisburg, PA (June 28, 2012) – On Friday, Paul Festival, a grassroots event praising Presidential candidate Ron Paul and the ideas of liberty, announced the addition of renowned financial analyst, author, and television personality Peter Schiff to its growing lineup of speakers, bands, and entertainers. The event will take place August 24-26, 2012 with attendance expected to reach the tens of thousands.

Schiff is the CEO and Chief Global Strategist of U.S.-based brokerage firm Euro Pacific Capital, host of the nationally syndicated Peter Schiff Show, and a frequent guest on CNBC, Fox News, and other major media outlets. He is often quoted in the financial press and is the author of several books, including Crash Proof, How An Economy Grows and Why It Crashes and his just-released NY Times Best Seller The Real Crash: America's Coming Bankruptcy. Schiff served as an economic advisor to the 2008 Ron Paul Presidential campaign, and ran for US Senate from Connecticut in 2010.

“Ron Paul has changed the landscape and direction of the Republican Party.” said Schiff. “Correct information regarding our failed economic policies has been disseminated to our young people through his campaign and the internet, and I am proud to continue this movement through my involvement with Paul Festival.”

“We are honored to have Peter speak at Paul Festival.” said festival board member Bryan Siemon. “As a result of his accurate forecasts on the U.S. Dot-com, real estate, and stock market meltdowns, Peter has become a strong voice for sound money and freedom. We couldn’t imagine a festival that celebrates the philosophy of liberty without Peter being part of it.”

Schiff began his investment career as a financial consultant with Shearson Lehman Brothers, after having earned a degree in finance and accounting from U.C. Berkeley in 1987. As an expert on money, economic theory, and international investing, Peter is a highly recommended broker by many leading financial newsletters and investment advisory services. He is one of the first speakers to be announced for this widely anticipated event, which will also include speeches from historian, economist, and political analyst Thomas Woods and former CIA intelligence officer Michael Scheuer, among others.
